Solution to Exercise 143 | 120 |
Key | 121 |
To the student

English Grammar in Use Supplementary Exercises is for intermediate and advanced students who want extra practice in grammar, without help from a teacher.

There are 200 exercises in this new edition. Each exercise relates to a unit or units in English Grammar in Use new edition 2004, with the unit number(s) at the top of the page. All the answers are given in the Key (pages 121–136). Some exercises ask you to use your own ideas. For these, you can check the Example answers in the Key. You can use this book if you don’t have English Grammar in Use, but for an explanation of the grammar points, you need to check in English Grammar in Use.

The grammar points covered in the book are not in order of difficulty, so you can go straight to the parts where you need the most practice. Where there are several exercises on one grammar point, however, the easier ones come first. It’s a good idea to do each exercise, check your answers and then go on to the next one.

Many of the exercises are in the form of emails, letters, conversations or short articles. You can use these as models for writing or speaking practice.

To the teacher

English Grammar in Use Supplementary Exercises offers extra practice of most of the grammar points covered in English Grammar in Use new edition 2004. Much of the language is contextualised within dialogues, emails, letters, articles etc., encouraging students to consider meaning as well as form. The book can be used as self-study material or as a basis for further practice in class or as homework.

The book is designed for students who have already worked through the exercises in English Grammar in Use (or elsewhere) which are relevant to their needs, but who need more, or more challenging, practice. It is particularly useful for revision work.

The exercises are organised in the same order as the units of English Grammar in Use, and the numbers of the relevant English Grammar in Use units are shown at the top of each page. Within each group of exercises there is a progression from easier to more challenging, including exercises where students are encouraged to use their own ideas. The contextualised exercises can be used as models or springboards for speaking and writing practice of a freer nature.
Thanks

The authors would like to thank Alison Sharpe of Cambridge University Press for advice and support during the writing of this new edition, and Liz Driscoll for great editing and many helpful suggestions. Also, everyone at Kamae for their creative design work.

Jane is being interviewed by Mrs Carr for a job working with young children.

MRS CARR: Come in, Jane. Please sit down. Would you like a coffee?
JANE: Thank you, actually I've just had (just) one.
MRS CARR: Oh good. Now, do you know this area at all?
JANE: Quite well. I've got friends who live in this town, so I've been here for holidays since I was a child. I'm staying with them at the moment, actually.
MRS CARR: Oh, that's nice. And do you have a driving licence?
JANE: Yes, I have for four years now.
MRS CARR: And would you say you're a careful driver?
JANE: Yes, I think so. At least I've never had an accident.
MRS CARR: Good. Now, could you tell me why you think you would be right for this job?
JANE: Well, I'm always interested in working with small children. And I'm two holiday jobs looking after children.
MRS CARR: How do you think you would cope in an emergency?
JANE: I'm quite a calm person, I think. I've got a first aid course too.
MRS CARR: That's good. Now, this job isn't permanent, as you know. We need someone for about a year. How would that fit with your long-term plans?
JANE: I'd like to work abroad eventually. But I want some full-time experience first. I've been a Nursery Teacher's course this year. We finish next week, in fact.
MRS CARR: When would you be able to start?
JANE: As soon as I finish my course.
MRS CARR: Excellent. And would you live with your friends?
JANE: Well, probably not. I want to rent a small flat. I don't anything yet.
MRS CARR: Well, if you get the job, we'll try to help you. Now, would you like to come and meet some of the children?
JANE: Oh, yes.
MRS CARR: Right, if you'll just follow me then.

Dear Nick,

We are having a wonderful time here in York. We have been here for three days now and we are going to stay for the rest of the week because we have spent ourselves so much. We went to the Cathedral and the Castle Museum, and this morning we went around the little old-fashioned streets, looking at the shops and cafes. I have been writing this postcard just before lunch. We haven't bought any souvenirs yet, but we have been going for a walk in the countryside, which is beautiful. Fortunately, the weather has been very good so far.

People can be very cold and it often rains for days! As this is the first time we have come to England, we hope that we're just lucky.

See you soon.

Dear Mr Aziz,
I have seen
I would like to apply for the job of shop manager which I see advertised in the local paper.
I am twenty years old. I was born in France, but my family moved to England when I was twelve and I am living here ever since. I left school since three years and since then I am having several jobs in shops. For the past six months I am working in Halls Department Store. The manager has been saying that he is willing to give me a reference.
I speak French and English fluently. I have also learnt German since I left school, so I speak some German too.
I hope you will consider my application.
Yours sincerely,
Louise Brett

Twenty-five years ago few people realised (realise) that computers were about to become part of our daily lives. This short period of time (see) enormous changes, in business, education and public administration.

Jobs which (take) weeks to complete in the past are now carried out in minutes. People who (spend) all day copying and checking calculations are now freed from these boring tasks. Students (become) as familiar with hardware and software as their parents (be) with pencils and exercise books. Computerisation of public records (enable) government departments to analyse the needs of citizens in detail.

Some of us may wonder, however, whether life (really / improve) as a result of these changes. Many jobs (disappear), for example, when intelligent machines (take) over the work. Employers complain that clerical staff (become) dependent on calculators and cannot do simple arithmetic. There are fears that governments (not / do) enough to ensure that personal information held on computers is really kept secret. Certainly, many people may now be wondering whether the spread of computers (bring) us as many problems as it (solve).

From: Robin Nicholas
To: Helena Shakespeare
Subject: Seeing you again

Helena

It was good to see you last week and to get your email yesterday.

Sorry to hear you lost your rap CD on the journey home. I've looked for it, but it definitely isn't in our car. I think you (1) may have left it on the train. Why not phone the lost property office? It (2) may have left down the side of your seat. Someone (3) may have left it and handed it in. Of course, if they like rap music, they (4) may have left ! Anyway, as far as I remember, you (5) may have left it here, because you were listening to it on the way to the station.

And now my news. Guess what? I (6) may have left to your part of the world next month! There is a conference in your town which my boss wanted to attend, but now he's heard that some important clients (7) may have left our office at that time. So, we (8) may have left each other sooner than we expected. Let's hope so. Of course it's not settled yet. I'll email as soon as I know for certain.

See you,

Robin

Subject: Travel tips

Gary, I know you haven't travelled in this part of the world before so I'd better give you a few tips to save you time and trouble.

First, you make sure you get to the airport really early because you always queue for ages at check-in. Then you go through passport control and so on.

You take something good to read because you'll have quite a long wait in the departure lounge. At least you be able to sit down there. When your flight's called, you follow an official out to your plane.

You (not) take very heavy hand luggage because you carry it yourself and there aren't any trolleys. Everyone agrees there be some, of course, but there aren't. The flight is quite short. You get a meal, which you eat even if it doesn't taste very interesting, because you have a long bus journey at the other end. A colleague will meet you off the bus.

If you have any questions, email me and I'll get back to you as soon as I can. Anna

Dear Ryan,

It was great to hear from you. Thanks for the congratulations and best wishes. I'll pass them on to Charlie when I see him at the weekend. Of course we're very excited about getting married, and frantically busy too, needless to say. You ask how we met.

Well, it's quite a funny story. (1) If she hadn't failed one of her final exams, she wouldn't have had to spend part of the summer in college. And that meant I couldn't go on holiday with my family. (2) The travel company refused to give me a refund because I cancelled too late. I was really fed up about not going on holiday with Mum and Dad. Then something nice happened. (3) I think the travel agent felt sorry for me because he had failed his final exams when he was a student. (4) Anyway, he had a cancellation on a tour which started later in the summer. So he was able to offer to transfer my booking. I was really pleased. (5) My father was pleased too, as transferring the booking meant that his money wasn't being wasted. So I went on this tour. And I met this young man. He was on his own too. (6) He told me his girlfriend should have been with him, but they'd had a row and she'd refused to come. (7) We were the only ones travelling alone, so we found ourselves going round the sights together. (8) He hadn't read about the places we were visiting and I spent most of my time telling him about them. And that was it really. We found we'd fallen in love. (9) Wasn't it lucky I failed that exam? That's how I met my future husband!

Now I must rush off and do some shopping. Will you come and stay soon? It'd be lovely if you could meet Charlie. Write soon. What have you been up to recently?

Lots of love,

Cherry

Bernie and Martin share a room at college. Read what they say about each other. Then write sentences beginning I wish he would / wouldn't.

MARTIN

It's dreadful having to share a room with Bernie. He's so untidy! His books are all over the place, he never washes his coffee cup, he leaves dirty clothes around the room - it's such a mess I can't work. And he comes in late in the evening when I'm trying to sleep and lies in bed watching television. I can't stand it! I'm going to look for a room on my own.

The trouble with Martin is that he never relaxes. He works so hard. He gets angry, but he won't tell me what's wrong. And he interferes with my possessions. He moves my books around so I can't find them. It's not much fun sharing a room with Martin.

BERNIE

Martin says:

I wish Bernie wouldn't leave his books all over the place.

Bernie says:

I wish Martin would relax sometimes.

Choose the correct alternative.

Dear Sally,

How are you? I've been having a great time here in England. I'm being looked after very well by our cousins. I (1) was taken / have been taken sightseeing twice since I arrived and I (2) have been introduced / have introduced to some of their friends, who (3) have made / were made feel very welcome.

Last night I (4) have shown / was shown around a castle by the owner! Most of the land in this area (5) has been owned / has owned by his family for about five hundred years. Apparently the land (6) was given / has been given to them after one of his ancestors (7) was killed / has killed while trying to save the king's life.

Quite romantic, isn't it?

The castle itself was a bit disappointing, to be absolutely honest. The owner told us that it (8) was suffered / suffered serious damage during a fire about thirty years ago. When it (9) was restored / restored, they (10) were added / added central heating and things like that. So once you're inside, it (11) doesn't feel / isn't felt much different to any other large, old house.

But the owner is a real character. He told us lots of stories about when he was young. He (12) was sent / sent abroad to work in a bank, but he (13) hated / was hated it. So he (14) has behaved / behaved very badly in order to (15) get sacked / get sacked. He kept us laughing for hours. I hope he (16) was invited / will be invited to our cousins' house before I leave so that I can hear some more stories.

I'll have lots more to tell you when I get back.

Love,

Maurice

Hi Maggie

Guess what? Last week I met Angela, who we used to work with. She told me she was still living with her parents, but she wanted to move out. She explained that her sister had found a flat they could share, and they'd looked round it the week before. It had just been decorated and they'd liked it very much, but they'd been asked to pay a month's rent in advance. Unfortunately, because she was working part-time and she didn't earn much money, she hadn't saved enough for the deposit. She said she was going to get a new job. She was being interviewed the next day, so she had to buy some new clothes for the interview. I hope Angela and her sister will invite us to their new flat when they move in!

Love,

Della

122 In Exercise 41, Alex, who wanted to go to an art college, was interviewed by one of the lecturers. A year later, his friend Charlie asked him about the interview, as he wanted to go to the same college. Complete Alex's answers.

CHARLIE: So, Alex, what was the interview like?
ALEX: Well, the interviewer started by asking me where I (1) ___________ (leave) school. And then he wanted to know where I (2) ___________ (be) since then. I told him I (3) ___________ (have) several jobs. First I (4) ___________ (work) in a café for about a year because I (5) ___________ (need) to save a lot of money for travelling. Of course he asked me where I (6) ___________ (want) to go and when I told him, he asked whether I (7) ___________ (visit) all those places. I explained to him that I (8) ___________ (be) to Brazil and Peru, and I (9) ___________ (spend) some months in Turkey. He told me I (10) ___________ (be) very lucky. Then he asked if I (11) ___________ (bring) some work to show him and he looked at my work. He liked it, I think.

CHARLIE: Was that all?
ALEX: I think so. He asked me when I (12) ___________ (become) interested in painting and drawing, and I said that I (13) ___________ (think) I always (14) ___________ (be). Oh, yes, and he told me my work (15) ___________ (be) very good.

CHARLIE: I'm not surprised. It is good. I hope he'll like my stuff too.
ALEX: Oh, I think he will, actually.

123 Look back at your answers to exercise 116. Complete the article which the journalist wrote a month after the interview with Wilma.

Last month I was lucky enough to interview Wilma Shriek when she was in this country. I asked her how long she (1) ___________ (be) here and she said two months, but actually she has already gone back to America. She told me it (2) ___________ her first visit because she (3) ___________ here five years before, for a holiday. She told me she (4) ___________ a tour. When I asked her how many cities she (5) ___________ , she thought about twenty. She said she (6) ___________ to have a holiday after the tour. She looked tired. But when I asked her whether she (7) ___________ a message for her fans, she told them (8) ___________ to the concerts and have a wild time. Well, it looks as though Wilma has had too many wild times, because her manager said last week that she is now resting!
John had a row with his girlfriend, Julie. His friend Mark tried to help them get back together and talked to Julie for John.

MARK: Julie, John's asked me to talk to you.
JULIE: I don’t want to speak to him.
MARK: Look Julie, John’s really upset.
JULIE: I’m upset too.
MARK: Will you just let me tell you his side of the story?
JULIE: I’m not interested. He promised to meet me at the restaurant, but he didn’t turn up. I don’t want to see him again.
MARK: But Julie, his car had broken down.
JULIE: So? I had my mobile with me.
MARK: But that’s the point. He tried to phone, but he couldn’t get through.
JULIE: I don’t believe he tried.
MARK: Yes, he did. His mobile wasn’t working, so he came to my flat and tried on my phone. Do you believe me?
JULIE: OK, I’ll talk to him. Listen, I’m going to be late for work. I’ll meet him at six o’clock in the square.
MARK: Thanks, Julie. He’ll be really happy. And I promise he’ll be there.

Complete the conversation Mark had later with John.

JOHN: What did Julie say?
MARK: She said she (1) didn’t want to speak to you .

JOHN: Well, what did she say when you told her I was really upset?
MARK: She said she (2) too, so I asked her to let me tell her your side of the story. She said she (3) .

You (4) to meet her at the restaurant, but you (5) . She said she (6) again.

JOHN: Did you explain about the car?
MARK: Yes, and she said she (7) her mobile with her. So I explained you couldn’t get through, but she said she (8) you (9) . Then I told her you (10) to my flat and (11) on my phone. I asked her (12) me. I think she did. Anyway, she said she (13) to you. Then she said she (14) late for work, so we had to finish. You have to meet her in the square at six o’clock.

JOHN: Thanks, Mark. I really appreciate what you’ve done for me.
MARK: That’s all right. Just don’t be late this evening.

TO: Mr Smiley, Sunways Travel Agency

I am very disappointed because the Imperial hotel is quite different from what you told us. You said there was a large swimming pool and that a disco was held every night. The brochure said the gardens have a wonderful variety of flowers. You also said room service is available. You told us the tennis courts can be booked free of charge. In fact, none of these facilities is available. Please arrange for us to be transferred to a better hotel immediately.

Yours,
Anna has just met the singer Colin Boyle. (You may remember him from Exercise 16.) She is telling Ian about the meeting. Ian wants to know exactly what Colin said to Anna and what she said to him.

IAN: Well, what was he like? Was he friendly? What did he say?

ANNA: He was really friendly. (1) He asked me who I was.

IAN: Then what?

ANNA: (2) He asked me where I came from.

IAN: And what did you say?

ANNA: (3) I told him I came from Dublin, of course. Then (4) he said that was where he was born too. Then (5) I told him I’d been a fan of his for ages and (6) he said that was very good to hear. Then (7) he asked whether I was going to the concert tonight. So (8) I told him we wanted to, but we hadn’t been able to get tickets. (9) He asked if the tickets were sold out, and (10) I told him they’d sold all but the most expensive ones and we couldn’t afford those.

IAN: And did he give you some tickets?

ANNA: No, he didn’t. But (11) he asked the concert hall manager if we could have some at the cheaper price. And the manager said ‘Yes’!

Now write exactly what Anna and Colin said.

Subject: Discussion with my father

Dear Stephanie,
I’m writing to tell you about the discussion I had with my father last weekend. We talked for several hours and I told him all about the plans we've made for our business. At first, he wasn’t very interested, but he didn’t think we were old enough to run a business. However, I told him that we had already seen the bank manager, who said that the plan seemed realistic. So then he sat down and asked me how much money we’d need to start with, and where we’d sell the stuff we made, and so on. Eventually he said, 'OK, it's a good plan.' He lent you some money to get started.' Honestly, I couldn’t believe he was saying it! Isn’t it great? I’m really looking forward to seeing you next week so we can talk to him together and get things going.

All the best,
Neville

Dear Ruth,

Thanks very much for the lovely present you sent for Laurie.
It was very kind of you. You say in your note that you haven’t got used to (1) being (be) an aunt yet. I used to (2) think (think) that becoming a father wouldn’t change me. I was wrong, of course! Life will never be the same again. We never used to (3) go (to go) to bed before midnight, but now we’re asleep by ten because we’ve had to get used to (4) wake (waking) up at five o’clock. Actually, in a way, that’s good. I always used to (5) arrive (to arrive) late at the office, but since Laurie was born my colleagues have got used to (6) find (finding) me hard at work by the time they arrive!

I should say, though, it hasn’t been so easy for Jenny. At first she found it very hard on her own with Laurie. She wasn’t used to (7) spend (spending) all day alone with a baby. But now she’s got to know a neighbour who also has a young baby and that helps. She used to (8) say (telling) she’d go back to work when Laurie was six months, but now she’s used to (9) be (being) at home she’s beginning to enjoy herself, so she may wait until Laurie is a bit older.

Anyway, try to come and see us soon while Laurie is still small.

All the best,

Dennis

SID: Look, there’s Angela. Isn’t she lovely?

TOM: She’s all right. You really like her, don’t you?

SID: Oh, yes. I often dream (1) about taking (take) her out for a meal or a film, but I’m afraid (2) to ask (ask) her.

TOM: Why?

SID: Well, I suppose I’m afraid (3) (look) foolish if she refuses.

TOM: If you like her so much, you shouldn’t be afraid (4) (risk) it. Anyway, I’m sure she won’t refuse.

SID: Really? OK, I’ll phone her tonight.

TOM: Good. I’m glad I’ve succeeded (5) (persuade) you to phone her.

SID: Why do you say that?

TOM: I happen to know she rather fancies you. I told her I’d make you phone her! She’ll be looking forward (6) (hear) from you!

B Brian and Phil are at work.

BRIAN: Good morning Phil, could we have a word in my office?

PHIL: Of course.

BRIAN: I’m sorry (7) (have) to say this, but I’m afraid you failed (8) (achieve) high enough sales to earn a bonus this month. I suppose the bad weather kept the customers away?

PHIL: Yes, I guess so. I’m very sorry (9) (let) you down this time.

BRIAN: OK, I’m sure you’ll make it up soon. I’m thinking (10) (send) one or two junior sales staff on a course next month. Would you be interested (11) (go)?

PHIL: Yes, I would be.

BRIAN: Good. I’ll put your name on the list.

PHIL: Thank you.

Put the verbs in the correct form. Can you solve this detective puzzle?

Trevor Stern was not a popular man, in spite of his wealth. He (1) lived (live) in a large house about a mile outside the village of Prenton. When he (2) was found (find) dead in his study, no-one (3) cried (cry), not even his only daughter. It was soon clear that he (4) murder (murder).

Detective Inspector Blackledge took statements from his widow Dorothy, his seventeen-year-old daughter Lucy, his business partner Gerald Brook, and his doctor.

I (5) not love (not love) my husband, he was a cold and selfish man. But I (6) not murder (not murder) him, either. After dinner last night he said he (7) want (want to check some business papers in his study. He (8) have (have) a meeting with Gerald, his business partner, the next morning. He (9) ask (ask for some tea. That was about nine o'clock. I (10) watch (watch) a rather exciting film on television, so I (11) tell (tell) Lucy to take it to him.

At quarter past nine Doctor Emerson (12) call (call). I (13) expect (notice the time because we (14) answer (answer) the front door bell. Trevor (15) shout (shout) in his study. He and Lucy (16) have (obviously have) a serious row. So I (17) take (take the doctor into the sitting-room for a moment. Then Trevor stopped (18) shout (shout). I (19) go (guessed Lucy (20) go out (go out by the back door. Doctor Emerson went to the study. I think he wanted to persuade Trevor (21) go (go into hospital for some tests, but Trevor (22) not want (not want to go.

I (23) hear (heard) my husband shouting again several times over the next twenty minutes. He called Emerson an ignorant country doctor and later he said something like, 'There's nothing you can do!' I think Lucy (24) come back (come) into the house while the doctor (25) still talk (still talk) to Trevor. I (26) hear (heard) the front door bang during a moment of quiet when Trevor (27) shout (not shout). I was tired and fed up, and went to my bedroom soon after that. My sister (28) phone (phone) and we (29) talk (talk) for ages. I (30) tell (tell) her I (31) decide (decide) to leave Trevor.
Mum (32) ......................... (watch) a stupid film after dinner, so she made me (33) ......................... (take) Dad’s tea into his study. It was about nine o’clock. He was in a really mean mood. He shouted at me because I (34) ......................... (spill) a few drops of tea on his desk while I (35) ......................... (pour) it. I
(36) ......................... (not / want) to watch the film, so I (37) ......................... (creep) out of the house by the back door. I (38) ......................... (decide) to go down to the village and use the public phone to call Alan. He’s my boyfriend.
I (39) ......................... (never / like) Mum or Dad to be around when I
(40) ......................... (talk) to him. Especially yesterday, because Dad and I
(41) ......................... (have) a stupid argument about Alan the day before.

It (42) ......................... (usually / take) quarter of an hour to walk to the village.
Perhaps it (43) ......................... (take) less time last night. I can’t prove I
(44) ......................... (go) to the village. No-one (45) ......................... (see) me while I (46) ......................... (walk) there. I (47) ......................... (see) Gerald, that’s Dad’s business partner. He (48) ......................... (stand) near the window in his sitting-room. He (49) ......................... (not / see) me though, because it was dark outside. He (50) ......................... (talk) on the phone, I think. Alan (51) ......................... (not / answer) the phone. Then I (52) .........................
(remember) he (53) ......................... (tell) me he (54) ......................... (play) in a concert that evening. So I (55) ......................... (walk) home again. I (56) ......................... (meet) Gerald just before I (57) ......................... (reach) our house. He (58) ......................... (look) for his dog. That was about twenty to ten.
I came in by the back door as quietly as possible and went to bed. I didn’t want to see my parents again that evening.

I (59) ......................... (call) at the Sterns’ house at 9.15. I (60) .........................
(be) rather later than I (61) ......................... (plan) to be because I
(62) ......................... (visit) another patient. When Mrs Stern (63) .........................
(let) me into the house, she (64) ......................... (seem) rather embarrassed and
(65) ......................... (show) me into the sitting-room. I could hear Trevor Stern
(66) ......................... (shout) at someone in his study. Mrs Stern said something about teenage girls and that they (67) ......................... (have) problems with Lucy. Well, the shouting (68) ......................... (stop) almost immediately, so I (69) .........................
(goto) his study. Lucy (70) ......................... (already / leave) the room before I
(71) ......................... (get) there. I tried (72) ......................... (explain) to Trevor why he needed (73) ......................... (have) these hospital tests, but he
(74) ......................... (not / listen). He said I (75) ......................... (be) an ignorant country doctor who (76) ......................... (not / know) what he (77) ......................... talk about. I (78) ......................... (realise) it was no use (79) ......................... (argue) with him, so I (80) ......................... (leave) after only a few minutes. I was quite angry actually. I let myself out of the house without (81) ......................... (see) Lucy or Mrs Stern.
Yes, Trevor was my business partner. We (82) .............................................. (not / be) really friends. Yes, my house (83) .............................................. (be) just round the corner from the Sterns’. I (84) .............................................. (live) here for two years now. I (85) .............................................. (have) a little cottage in the village. But I (86) .............................................. (buy) this house when I started (87) .............................................. (earn) a lot of money.

I can’t really tell you very much about the night Trevor died. I took my dog for a long walk that evening. I (88) .............................................. (go) up on the hills, away from the village. Then the stupid dog (89) .............................................. (go) after a rabbit or something and I (90) .............................................. (lose) him in the dark. I (91) .............................................. (look) for him when I (92) .............................................. (meet) Lucy, as a matter of fact. She (93) .............................................. (walk) up the road towards their house. She (94) .............................................. (seem) rather upset. I told her I (95) .............................................. (look) for my dog, but she said she (96) .............................................. (not / see) it.

She (97) .............................................. (go) into her house and I (98) .............................................. (find) the dog a few minutes afterwards. I was back home by just after quarter to ten.

GERALD

Detective Inspector Blackledge showed the statements to her colleague, Sergeant Ross.

BLACKLEDGE: Well, Ross. What do you think? Who killed Stern?
ROSS: I don’t know. It (99) .............................................. (not / be) his wife. She (100) .............................................. (not / even / go) into the study.
BLACKLEDGE: But she admits she didn’t love him. Do you think she’s in love with the doctor?
ROSS: It’s possible. And perhaps Trevor Stern (101) .............................................. (find out). But we know the doctor was at the hospital by ten o’clock that night. And that’s at least half an hour from the Sterns’ house.
BLACKLEDGE: But that (102) .............................................. (mean) he (103) .............................................. (leave) the Sterns’ house before half past nine.
ROSS: Exactly. Also, Dorothy Stern told her sister she (104) .............................................. (leave) her husband. She didn’t need (105) .............................................. (murder) him.
BLACKLEDGE: Yes, and there’s something about Lucy’s story which doesn’t quite fit. Let’s see, what did Gerald Brook say?
ROSS: That’s it! Lucy (106) .............................................. (not / walk) to the village and back if he (107) .............................................. (meet) her at twenty to ten. She (108) .............................................. (still / shout at) by her father at 9.15.
BLACKLEDGE: But look at all the statements. The times don’t fit.
ROSS: Neither do the facts. Someone (109) .............................................. (tell) lies.
BLACKLEDGE: I think it’s time we (110) .............................................. (make) an arrest.

Who did they arrest? See page 120.

MARY: Hello, Liz, are you ready?

LIZ: Yes, just about. All my luggage is here. I hope I haven’t got too many cases.

MARY: Don’t worry. There’s plenty of room in the car.

LIZ: Oh, good. I’ve packed rather a lot of things. I haven’t had much experience of travelling in the mountains, so I wasn’t sure what to bring.

MARY: As long as you’ve got some warm sweaters for the evenings, and a good raincoat, you should be OK. The weather in the mountains is wonderful, but the climate can change very suddenly.

LIZ: Well, we’ve got a lovely view to start with.

MARY: You’re right there. And I’m sure you’ll like our table at the hotel, because they’ve promised me the ones I had last year when I was with my brother. Did you pack the guidebook, by the way?

LIZ: Yes, and I packed some paper so we can do some drawing.

MARY: That’s a good idea. It’d be nice to keep some sort of diary too.

LIZ: Yes. We might make an album afterwards, with words and pictures. And I’m sure I’m going to have some weather to write about.

MARY: Well, the weather are like nothing you’ve ever seen. And there’s always music or something in one of the villages every evening. We’ll buy the local newspaper when we get there and find out what’s going on.

LIZ: Well, I’m ready.

MARY: OK, let’s go!

Choose the correct alternative.

TROUBLE AT NORTON MINING

The entire workforce of Norton Mining has gone (1) on / in strike following a serious accident at the mine in Coolooma in Queensland. The cause (2) for / of the accident is unclear, but the union is blaming management attitudes (3) on / to safety regulations. A spokesperson said, 'Damage (4) of / to equipment was frequently ignored and union demands (5) for / of safer working practices were rejected. The managers' relationship (6) with / to the union was very poor, so although we pointed out that there'd been a rise (7) of / in the number of minor accidents over the past year, they said there was no need (8) for / of a change in working practices.'

John Norton, the chairman of Norton Mining, is away (9) on / in a business trip. His secretary said she had spoken to him (10) by / on the phone. The news of the accident had come (11) like / as a great shock to him, she added. She was unable to say when he would be back.

It is understood that the police would like to speak to Mr Norton in connection (12) with / to a number of his financial dealings.

Dear Ms Sparks,
I would like to apply for the job in your shop which I have seen advertised in the paper.
I am seventeen years old. My first language is Italian, but I also speak quite good German and English. I have not yet left school, but I have some experience in working in a shop as I sometimes help my uncle who runs a small supermarket.
My class teacher, Mr Pallini, has said that he is willing to give me a reference.
I hope you will consider my application.
Yours sincerely,
